

Name _____

Oral Language/Nonverbal Communication Quiz

- _____ 1. Choosing to say the word often as “ah-fun” would be considered _____.
- A. Pronunciation B. Articulation C. Enunciation
- _____ 2. Since the word table could mean either a kind of furniture or a graph, that means that words are _____.
- A. Structured B. Grammatical C. Symbolic
- _____ 3. Saying “dolla” instead of “dollar” mean that a person has poor _____.
- A. Pronunciation B. Articulation C. Enunciation
- _____ 4. When a person says “git” instead of “get” they have poor _____.
- A. Pronunciation B. Articulation C. Enunciation
- _____ 5. Recognizing a person from New York by the way they sound would mean that they have a kind of _____.
- A. Colloquialism B. Diction C. Dialect
- _____ 6. When a lawyer uses specific legal terms, he would be using _____.
- A. Jargon B. Colloquialism C. Informal Language
- _____ 7. The sounds “uh” or “um” are known as _____.
- A. Tags B. Fillers C. Diction
8. List three types of language that is never acceptable and explain why.
- a.
- b.
- c.
9. Why is it important to have a large vocabulary and how can you increase it?
10. Explain how nonverbal communication could reinforce or contradict a verbal message.
11. Give an example of a gesture used in American culture. _____
- _____ 12. When a person is excited or scared, the _____ of their voice may go up.
- A. Volume B. Inflection C. Pitch
- _____ 13. If a person’s _____ is too fast, they are hard to follow.
- A. Volume B. Rate C. Inflection
- _____ 14. This can help provoke thoughts or create suspense.
- A. Pause B. Volume C. Pitch
- _____ 15. Clearing your throat with an “ah-hem” sound would be considered a _____.
- A. Filler B. Vocalization C. Tone
- _____ 16. When hanging out with friends, you should maintain a(n) _____ distance.
- A. Intimate B. Public C. Personal
- _____ 17. When certain students always claim a seat in a certain part of the bus, this would be considered _____.
- A. Territory B. Intimate Space C. Environment
- _____ 18. Ms. Zinn’s Marvin the Martian Bobble head would be consider a(n) _____.
- A. Odor B. Artifact C. Territory
- _____ 19. Always being late tends to send a negative message about a person.
- A. True B. False
- _____ 20. A speaker has the responsibility to make sure they are using an appropriate volume.
- A. True B. False
- _____ 21. Most people first respond to what they hear.
- A. True B. False
- _____ 22. Direct eye contact in American culture is viewed as a sign of honesty.
- A. True B. False